Dota 2 has also created the most revenue for Valve in the last fifteen years (approximately US$2.57 billion), which makes it well-positioned for continued expansion and expansion into new regions and regions into more regions.. In 2012, Dota 2's second iteration, Dota 2: Heart of the Swarm, was released worldwide. It was the largest game in each of the major gaming platforms released in the last fifteen years (Xbox 360, PlayStation 3, and Wii). It has been praised for its competitive mode that allowed for rapid team composition, and its team-based hero-based battle mode. However, it has been criticized for the lack of competitive game modes due to the difficulty of the gameplay, the lack of a real offline mode, and the lack of strategic options for new players. It also was the most expensive game in history to purchase, surpassing the first edition of Counter-Strike: Global Offensive by many million dollars. The game was released to a wide range of platforms. As of September 2016, Dota 2 had been sold over 1 million times (by September 2018)..
